Burckhardt Compression and KB Delta enter into strategic partnership for compressor valve parts

Burckhardt Compression and KB Delta have signed a global distribution agreement in December 2021, effective January 1, 2022. Burckhardt Compression acts as worldwide distributor and service partner for KB Delta's product portfolio of compressor valve parts. KB Delta and Burckhardt Compression have been working together for several years as KB Delta provides its products to Burckhardt Compression.

Rainer Duebi, President Services Division of Burckhardt Compression comments:

"We are happy that we could formalize an agreement with a long-standing, trusted partner which gives our customers access to high-quality products with short delivery times due to KB Delta's extensive inventory and state-of-the-art production."

George Giourof, Chief Operating Officer of KB Delta states:

"KB Delta is proud to work even closer with Burckhardt Compression in the future. KB Delta will have access to new markets and countries thanks to Burckhardt Compression's extensive sales network. We are looking forward to a fruitful partnership."
